

Regarding Scott Street's passing:

It was heartwarming to reconnect with Scott at our last several class reunions which he helped to make happen! I was a shy Barrington Elementary brat starting at Hastings and knew no one. Scott and Bob Armbruster (best of friends) let me into their network easing my adolescent angst. Both "Armbruster" & "Street" (we always used last names) were tough cookies, and being a small fry, I appreciated the alliance. Thank you Captain Scott! My condolences to all mourning his passing...
